

Swanage's Secret 'Lanes'

Hidden away in the centre of Swanage is a warren of shops and arcades well worth exploring, but you'll need help finding the way in!

Start off in the High Street by the library and you'll see the Daisy May Arcade, fronted by The Emporium and the Sweetie Treat Shop, Further Inside you'll find Happy Days, Replayed Records, Martin's Purbeck Memories and the Plumbing & Heating Centre.

Leave by the back exit and turn left for The Last Resort (antiques), the Eclectic Abode, Chococo shop and chocolate café, Wilcox & Cooke (sales & lettings), Smithy's Tattoo Parlour, Jester's Internet café, Smart Dogz, and many other shops.

Turn right out of the back of Daisy May's Arcade for Blooms the florist and Tilly Whim Court with Chilled Red (restaurant), Allwoods (lingerie) Visage (hairdressers), The Bay (skin & body centre) and more.

You haven't seen Swanage till you've seen 'The Lanes'!

Swanage Blues Festivals

Do you want to boogie by the bay, bop till you drop, join in the open mic and jam sessions, or just chill out to great rhythms and booze?

Well, look no further! Swanage Blues Festivals take place twice a year and are known as The Best Blues Parties on the South Coast!

With over 100 musicians playing 40 gigs in 15 indoor venues (most of them in the High Street) you can mix and match all weekend to your heart's content.

How much are the tickets? There are no tickets! Just Show You Care by buying a wristband to ensure the festivals' survival. We're not asking £10 a gig, or even £10 a day... only £10 a weekend for all that fun!

Accommodation goes quickly for these wonderful events so check out where to stay on the festival website. And get on the mailing list so you don't miss out on anything.

The next Swanage Blues Festivals are 5, 6, 7 October 2012 and 1, 2, 3 March 2013
